

THE JOY OF SINGING

A WHOLE DAY'S ACTIVITIES DEVOTED TO CHORAL SINGING

MORNING WORKSHOP:

11:00AM – 1:00PM

'Can't sing but want to sing, or can sing but want to sing better'

Led by Mark Beesley, this workshop is an introduction to good singing technique aimed at all levels.

How do we sing?

How to make your singing easy

Singing in harmony.

Mark is well known in the area as the MD of 'Singing for Fun' and is soon to take over the MD role with the Crowborough Choral Society. He has had an illustrious career as an Opera Singer as well as a sought after singing teacher and workshop leader.

Even if you are complete beginner, come along to get some expert tips on how to find your inner singer!

Workshop fee: £10

AFTERNOON WORKSHOP:

2:00PM – 5:00PM

Workshop led by Alexander L'Estrange, a leading choral composer and musician. During this session the techniques practiced in the morning workshop are built on and the participants will learn two or more songs composed by Alexander.

Alexander L'Estrange is passionate about music education and in particular the importance of singing in schools and the wider community.

Alexander regularly presents workshops and adjudicates throughout the UK with a mixture of energy, fun and consummate musicianship that has become synonymous with his name.

Fee: £15

CROWBOROUGH SINGS: 7:00PM – 9:00PM

A Choral celebration – free evening performances

FREE concert with local choirs performing a twenty-minute set each, of the choir's favourite pieces. A pay bar will be available.
